IN MEMORIAM.

Life and death are both the lot of man, and when we die the world asks what has he left, how much has he accumulated of worldly wealth? The Angels inquire, what good deeds survive him? In the death of James E. Dews, late of Princess Anne county, has been quenched one of the brightest sparks of human age, Christian Charity (though he was not a church member), that ever shed a benefi-cent glow upon those who knew and loved him.

Modest beyond compare, alert to the cry of distress, his heart and purse were ever open to the needy, and in quitting this life he leaves behind him a gap not easily filled. The poor oft stopped to bless him, and now, as his pure soul is winging its flight to Heaven, in the stillness around his grave, I hear a voice, sweet and low—I know it is an Angel's—saying:
"Well done! Well done!"

NAMES OF PUPILS WHO HAVE WON DISTINCTION

The Rolls of Honor—Winners of Medals—Two Excellent

Essays on "The Treason of Benedict Arnold" Win Beautiful Medals for their Authors from the Daughters of the American Revolution—Notable Addresses by Well Known Speakers—Presentation of Pictures of General Robert E. Lee by the Young Daughters of the Confederacy—Class Songs Composed by High School Pupils and Set to Well Known Airs.

Commencement at the Norfolk High School took place yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the school building, corner Park and Smith avenues, Brambleton. The program, as published yesterday, was carried out, and the exercises were thoroughly appreciated and much enjoyed by the large number of people present.

The School Board medals were presented by Hon. John B. Whitehead, president of the Board of School Trusttees.

The Bagnall medal was delivered to its winner by Mr. R. A. Dobie, Superintendent of Schools.

The special medal awarded by Mr.
Cannon for excellency in mathematics was handed to the young mathematician by Mr. H. B. Bagnall.

A very pretty and unique feature was the presentation of the handsome engraving of General Robert E. Lee to the school by the young Daughters of the Confederacy, represented by Mrs.
Frank Anthony Walker, Mrs. Unstadter and Miss Williamson. Mr. W.
H. Venable made the presentation address, and Mr. R. A. Dobie received the gift on behalf of the school.

The diplomas were presented to the graduates by Mr. George McK. Bain, the principal.

The most striking and original musical feature of the exercises were the singing of the class songs, composed by L. C. Terwilliger and R. S. Payne, Jr., and Florence Billups and Mary Walker. The boys' song was set to the air of "Sing Me a Song of the Sunny South," and the girls' ode was to the tune of "Smoky Mokes."

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Ernest Fletcher, instead of Rev. Dr. E. Mack, as announced in the program.

The graduating class desires to take this opportunity of thanking Messrs.
H. D. Oliver and H. D. Smith for the use of the chairs they so kindly loaned for the occasion.

Below will be found, arranged by classes, in order of their standing on the final examination, a list of those pupils who were successful in all their studies, and who are therefore entitled to promotion to the next higher class.
This list is known as and Mrs. Jacob Battle. Present were Mrs. George M. Pollard, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. J. Wilkinson, Mrs. Battle, of Rocky Mount; Miss Wilkinson, Miss Virginia Pollard, Miss Ruth Wilson, Miss Edith Chase, Mr. Arthur Dere-ney and Mr. Charles Bradley.

A CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Charles Walton gave a pretty children's party on Wednesday evening at her home on Charlotte street. Games and dancing were indulged in until 10 o'clock, when refreshments were served.
Some of those present were Misses Virginia Gray, Mary Wilson, Mary Harris, Nancy McClure and Florence and Carrie Walton, Messrs. Arthur Grey, Robert Harris and Henry Jordan.

SOCIAL ITEMS.

Mrs. Walter Doyle returned on Monday from a visit to Roanoke, Va.

Mrs. C. W. Tanner and Miss Ruth Tanner, of Richmond, are at the Arlington cottage, Virginia Beach.

Mrs. George W. Payne, of Suffolk, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George W.
Wilson, on Granby street.

Judge Battle, of Rocky Mount, is at the Virginia Cottage, Virginia Beach.

The Helpful Circle of the King's Daughters will give a pleasant entertainment Monday evening in the lecture room of Freeman Street Baptist Church.

The first of a series of Germans to be given on Saturday evenings, at the "Princess Anne," will take place soon.

SCHOOL EXERCISES.

The closing exercises of the Intermediate Department of Holt Street Public School took place yesterday morning. There was a large attendance of the parents and friends of the pupils.
Vocal and instrumental music and recitations were given, and Mr. Parsons, principal of the school, presented the certificates and prizes. Among the interesting numbers was a recitation by Miss Lillian Turner, a song by Alma Sherrick, and a pretty instrumental piece by Lucile Noe. The valedictory was given by Rilla Caffee. All taking part did well, reflecting great credit upon the teachers. Mrs. M. L. Francis and Mrs. Furd. The room was decorated with flowers and growing plants.

At the closing exercises of the Second Primary of the Holt Street Public School, held yesterday morning, a very interesting program was rendered.

The room was decorated for the occasion with palms and cut flowers, and many of the parents and friends of the pupils were present to witness the exercises. The teacher of this department is Miss Virginia Old.

The scholarship medal was won by Fannie Markel, who made 100 per cent. in three out of four examinations. The reward for penmanship was won by Florence Bright, and the reward for excellent department was won by Ethel May Ayres. Mary Caffee won the reward for excellent attendance.

The closing exercises of the seventh year of the Holt Street School, of which Miss Alice Wharton is teacher, occurred last evening. All of the participants acquitted themselves creditably, and the exercises were enjoyed by a number of the parents and friends of the children. The medals and gold certificates, presented by Superintendent Dobie, and the certificates of scholarship and promotion cards by Mr. H. B.
Bain.

The following program was rendered:

New Arrival in

White Shirt Waists

We just opened a big box containing an assortment of Ladies' White Shirt Waists, so varied, and each separate style so excellent, that words are entirely inadequate to describe them properly to you. Your presence is absolutely necessary if you desire to see the beauty of these brand-new, fresh summer Shirt Waists. Some are quite neat, being very plain in style, while others show the most elaborate and artistic ideas yet conceived in waist making. The selling has been heavy in shirt waists hitherto, and if you desire to have first choice, come and pick from the prettiest collection you ever saw. Prices begin at $1 and run on up.
